

The Community of Writers DREAMer Scholarship

To attend the Poetry Program of the Community of Writers

Funded by donations from alumni, staff, and friends of the Community of Writers, this scholarship is established to provide undocumented participants an opportunity to attend summer workshops.

Eligibility:

For new participants only, and those who would not be able to attend without financial assistance.

Amount of Scholarships: $2,000.00

The award includes the $1,450 (of the total $1550)* Poetry Workshop Tuition, plus $550 to be put toward accommodation costs or travel. (Upon acceptance, recipient will still be required to send in the $100 nonrefundable deposit by the deadline on the acceptance form.*)

Applicants who apply for this scholarship will automatically be considered for all appropriate scholarships and financial aid, if admitted.

To Apply:

Along with your Financial Aid application, prepare a paragraph titled: “Application for consideration for The 2023 The Community of Writers DREAMer Poetry Scholarship.” In this paragraph, please introduce yourself and tell us what you hope to get out of your week in Olympic Valley and why you would be a good candidate for the scholarship. Indicate your wish to apply for this scholarship in the “Special Scholarship” portion of the online application form, and paste the paragraph in the appropriate place on the online application form.

For more information contact Brett Hall Jones at 530-470-8440 or email her at brett@communityofwriters.org.