

00:45:57 Hunter Jones (Community of Writers): Hi all, welcome!

00:46:06 Hunter Jones (Community of Writers): I'll be posting some info here shortly

00:48:15 Lisa Alvarez: Welcome back everyone!

00:52:10 Hunter Jones (Community of Writers): Hi folks, welcome! I'll be posting some info here soon

00:56:58 Lisa Alvarez: Hey folks! Greeting from the San Bernardino mountains! I can hear the Santa Ana river. Thanks for joining us from wherever you are.

00:58:14 Hunter Jones (Community of Writers): Welcome to Warm, Fullblooded Life, a Short Course on from the Writers' Annex and the Community of Writers. My name is Hunter Jones.

CREDITS:

The intro music is Silent O Moyle by Mary O'Hara

TECHNICAL ISSUES: Troubleshooting support is on the Headquarters Page, including support phone numbers.

CHAT: Please use the chat as you'd like. We ask that you remain respectful and kind, and refrain from combative or argumentative messages. Important info will be provided in the chat at the beginning and at the end of each segment.

00:58:26 Hunter Jones (Community of Writers):

CLOSED CAPTIONING: To turn on closed captions, click on the button at the bottom of your window. If you don't see an option to turn on captions, you may need to click the three dots in the lower right-hand corner of your screen to expand the menu. If it is still not there, you may have an older version of zoom. A link to update to the latest version of the zoom desktop client is on the Headquarters Page

TO ASK A QUESTION: If you want to ask a question, type QUESTION: And then your question after it. Naturally, Peter won't be able to address every question.

You can also use the Q&A feature if you prefer.

THE HEADQUARTERS PAGE: Remember the Headquarters Page will be the go-to website for this course. It is our hub. All updates, links, course materials, handouts, and other resources will be posted there each week.

00:58:35 Hunter Jones (Community of Writers):

RECORDINGS: These sessions will be recorded, and will be available for later viewing by registered participants for 30 days following the final session.

STRUCTURE: The first portion of each session will feature Peter moving through this week's reading with discussion and illumination; after a ten-minute break, he will spend the second portion of the course working with questions from the chat, and covering anything he didn't get to in the first half. This structure may vary week to week depending on the readings.

VIRTUAL HOUSES: Toward the end of each session, the Virtual Houses will open. If you would like to keep the conversation going, stick around and we will send you to a virtual house.

01:24:23 Cynthia Broshi: QUESTION: how do we know that Stephen is inventing identity of the 2 women? How do we know he doesn't know who they are? (a lot of people know a lot of people in the book).(in contrast, the stuff about the umbilical cord is obviously made up)

01:24:42 Neal Wrightson: QUESTION: "If you can put your five fingers through it, it is a gate, if not a door." What does he mean - it is a gate if not a door? Or is there a comma missing: "it is a gate, if not, a door"?

01:25:35 Millicent Borges Accardi (she, her, mill): ha ha "So much the better. We have nothing in the house but backache pills."

01:25:39 Charlie Levin: Replying to "QUESTION: "If you ca..."

Not exactly an answer, but the diaphane refers to transparency vs. solidity, so I think the door would be solid. I guess he's picturing transparency as being less solid.

01:25:45 Michael Sharick: Replying to "QUESTION: "If you ca..."

If you can't put your fingers through it, it's a door. Solid. A gate is made of slats or bars.

Yes! So beautiful...

01:28:54 Paul Watkins: Stephen sees one dog decaying on the beach and another frolicking and sniffing the circus. Like the umbilical cord, is this believable?

01:28:58 Roger Soffer: That answers the question if the previous meeting was real!

01:29:58 Laura Lampton Scott: Replying to "Stephen sees one dog..."

Molly sends Bloom downstairs to make tea so she can read Boylan's letter without him seeing. Then she redirects the conversation. They know each other, we just don't know how well, yet.

I was wondering about the mirror in the hat — was this that Goodwin was spying a bit while bowing out the budding Milly? (The description struck me as more frank than sexualizing, taking after her luscious mother)

03:02:51 Rachel Vine: Bloom is so hyper-focused on the sexual aspect of women that it must be conflicting to restrain those thoughts as his daughter ages. He sees women as sexual objects. Woman on the street, his wife, thinking about Martha, woman at the butcher - those are just the ones in this week's assignment, lolz

My point is that Joyce recognizes that we all have thoughts and thoughts are not what makes a person saintly or inhuman. We are not our thoughts and a book like this which looks at thoughts that drop in are not meant to be used to judge the character.
