

00:44:11 Hunter Jones (Community of Writers): Hi Folks, welcome! I'll be posting some info here soon

00:57:28 Hunter Jones (Community of Writers):

Welcome to Warm, Fullblooded Life, a Short Course on from the Writers' Annex and the Community of Writers. My name is Hunter Jones.

CHAT: We are hoping that the chat can stay limited to questions in the first half. We're keeping it open to all comments, but hoping to keep the conversation minimal until we get to the second half. Feel free to ask questions as you like. Once we get to the second half we will invite more open conversation in the chat. Thank you!

CREDITS:

The intro music is Silent O Moyle by Mary O'Hara

TECHNICAL ISSUES: Troubleshooting support is on the Headquarters Page, including support phone numbers.

00:57:59 Hunter Jones (Community of Writers):

TECHNICAL ISSUES: Troubleshooting support is on the Headquarters Page, including support phone numbers.

CHAT: Please use the chat as you'd like. We ask that you remain respectful and kind, and refrain from combative or argumentative messages. Important info will be provided in the chat at the beginning and at the end of each segment. In the first half, please use the chat for questions only.

CLOSED CAPTIONING: To turn on closed captions, click on the button at the bottom of your window. If you don't see an option to turn on captions, you may need to click the three dots in the lower right-hand corner of your screen to expand the menu. If it is still not there, you may have an older version of zoom. A link to update to the latest version of the zoom desktop client is on the Headquarters Page

00:58:28 Hunter Jones (Community of Writers): TO ASK A QUESTION: If you want to ask a question, type QUESTION: And then your question after it. Naturally, Peter won't be able to address every question.

You can also use the Q&A feature if you prefer.

THE HEADQUARTERS PAGE: Remember the Headquarters Page will be the go-to website for this course. It is our hub. All updates, links, course materials, handouts, and other resources will be posted there each week.

RECORDINGS: These sessions will be recorded, and will be available for later viewing by registered participants for 30 days following the final session.

STRUCTURE: The first portion of each session will feature Peter moving through this week's reading with discussion and illumination; after a ten-minute break, he will spend the second portion of the course working with questions from the chat, and covering anything he didn't get to in the first half. This structure may vary week to week depending on the readings.

01:01:07 Hunter Jones (Community of Writers): You can use the chat for questions, or you can use the Q&A in the first half

01:01:43 Hunter Jones (Community of Writers): In the second half, feel free to chat as you normally would

Will definitely discuss, such a beautiful section...

01:16:39 Jonathan Maas: Question for PO for after the talk. One line made me realize something about previous chapters - the line:

'He took out his handkerchief to dab his nose.

Citronlemon? Ah, the soap I put there. Lose it out of that pocket. Putting back his handkerchief he took out the soap and stowed it away, buttoned, into the hip pocket of his trousers.'

This line was very very 'clean and elegant', and illustrates that in last week's chapters he shows the grotesqueries of everyday life by expressing eating organs in detail, and the difficulties of everyday life by showing funerals in detail.

What do you make of this showing of - first and foremost the everyday grotesqueries (organ eating to start the day), followed by the everyday difficulties and everyday beauty?

(Mostly the grotesqueries - what is all that organ eating all about haha)?

01:16:45 Lisa Fruchtman:Cont. what is happening at the end on par 183 ? Is Bloom ducking into the museum - avoiding who ? Buck Mulligan later refers to this. Or Martin's mother. His father's suicide perhaps when Martin was a child.

02:03:53 JoAnne Tillemans: I see it as Cunningham's wife - He is musing about Cunningham in the paragraph. "He looked at me." Refers to Cunningham looking at himself in sympathy. Then Bloom thinks of Cunningham's wife (returning the sympathy to Cunningham)

The Joyce Society in Dublin commissioned a complete reading of Ulysses by an Irish actor Jim Norton for the Centennial of Bloomsday in 2004. It was the largest purchase I'd ever made of a recording; I believe it was 25+/- CDs and cost more than $100. I wore them out
